BRYAN MAY RUN AGAIN.

"My friends do not require me to prejudice the future, and I shall not take the advice of my opponents on this subject. I shall continue to write and speak in defense of things which I believe to be good for the American people. I hope it may never become necessary to run for office again, but I will not attempt to decide that question until the time comes to act. I do not see any necessity to say more on the subject."

In answer to the direct question, "Will you run for the presidency again if conditions arise to warrant it?" William J. Bryan last night in San Antonio, Texas, dictated the foregoing statement.

Regarding the future of the democratic party, he said:

"I am not at all discouraged as to the future of the democratic party. There must be a democratic party in every country, and I would our party to be democratic, and I have no doubt that the country will see the necessity for the adoption of the reforms advocated by the democratic party. It is already a great educational force, and I have no doubt that conditions will so indicate the party as to make the voters turn to it as the best instrument for the accomplishment of the necessary reforms."

"Will you allow yourself to be elected United States senator from Nebraska?" he was asked.

"Nebraska does not elect a senator this year," he said, with a smile.

"But it does two years from now," he was reminded.

"You have my statement regarding my future so far as I care to say," and he refused to discuss the subject further.

CONVICTS BURNED TO DEATH.

According to managers of the mine, 50 state convicts employed in the mines at Pratt City, near Birmingham, Ala., formed a conspiracy Monday night to set No. 3 mine afire and escape during the confusion, and as a result eight convicts were burned to death, one is missing and the other 41 are safely locked in the stockade.

The coup was cunningly planned and daringly executed. A lot of timber lying in the mine was ignited and the convicts hoped that when attention had been attracted to the flames they could make their way through the mine and escape by the main entry. They had hoped to be able to make their way along the mine shaft of the smoke and fumes from the fire. In this way they miscalculated, for at least eight were suffocated.

The others appeared to be meeting with success when the mine officials suspected something. One overseer saw the flames burst out so suddenly and in such volume that he was sure some kindling had been used in starting them.
Making his way to the outside, he informed others and guards were at once placed at the shaft. The men were caught as they came from the main entry.

Rescue work was then begun, for in addition to the convicts there were a number of free laborers in the mines.
All appear to have got out safely except the convicts near the source of the flames.

WATCHMAN MURDERED.

Thomas B. Monroe, for fifteen years a watchman at the Bluff, between Cole-mans Falls and Waughans, on the James river branch of the Chesapeake and Ohio, seventeen miles west of Lynchburg, was murdered some time Monday night while on duty, and his body was thrown over a 15-foot wall by the mur-derer, where it was found yesterday morning.

The watchman was paid off Monday by the pay train, which passed his watch box, and robbery is given as the cause of the crime.

Monroe lived with his daughter, Mrs.
T. J. Seay, station agent at Colemans Falls, and when he did not return home yesterday morning a search was instituted for him and his remains were found partly in the James river. On the bank above the high wall there were evidences of a struggle. The head of the dead man had been crushed with some blunt instrument.

The dead man is survived by his wife, five sons and four daughters. He was sixty-eight years old and a Confederate veteran.

DEATH FOLLOWS PROPHECY

As Jesse Hoffman was starting a new pot in Pierce's glass factory Clayton, N.
J., Monday, he remarked: "The shop that works this pot will have two or three holidays." He then went home, feeling ill and in about three hours he died of hemorrhages. About the same time the last pot that he started broke, the molten glass was lost and as he predicted, the men will have a holiday until a new pot is put in. Hoffman was 54 years old and had long been a resident of Clayton.

The soothing spray of Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, used in an atomizer, is an unspeakable relief to sufferers from Catarrh.
Some of them describe it as a God-send, and no wonder. The thick, foul discharge is dissolved and the patient breathes freely, perhaps for the first time in weeks. Liquid Cream Balm contains all the healing, purifying elements of the solid form, and it never fails to satisfy. Sold by all druggists for 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bro., 55 Warren Street, New York.
